

Mass Transit: Who Benefits

Students loading the SLCC campus shuttle at South High for the half hour ride to the Taylorsville campus.

Gary Baker, UTA driver, running late, prepares to exit the trax park and ride on 6400 south en route to state street and downtown.

The state street UTA bus hosts a mixed bag of riders as it nears the downtown area in late afternoon.

Stacy and Witbeck Inc, Suarhouse street car track crew, stabilizing the rails in preparation for a cement pour.

U of U students loading the Red line Trax which runs from the university all the way out to Daybreak in Herriman.

Retired, with a wife who works for UTA, Joseph takes advantage of his free pass riding trax and the buses around town almost every day.

A young family exits while early afternoon commuters on the outbound Sandy blue line trax route, pass the time reading, listening to music and surfing the world wide web.

Holiday lights add a festive spirit as the outbound blu picks up speed leaving the station at 3rd south and main.